Hello there!

I'm Aditi Shastry!

Graphic Designer | Interaction Designer

With a crayon in hand and a twinkle in my eye, I started my journey of drawing through scribbles and doodles, to illustrations, analogue printing, animation and typography, which finally lead to a formal education in Graphic Design. Only now, The crayon is replaced by a cup of chai, helping me discover humor and stories from conversations of life.

I am currently a UI UX Designer at Tata Consultancy Services.
